

Using the ENAC mark

CLIENT INFORMATION NOTE

Congratulations on your approval from LRQA.

To help you to make the most of your achievement we would like to give you guidelines on how and when you can use your approval mark.

The ENAC accreditation mark on your certificate shows that we have approved your company for quality management systems under terms set out by Entidad Nacional de Acreditación (ENAC), the Spanish accreditation council.

Using the mark

The ENAC mark will be on your approval certificate. It is issued to companies approved by LRQA, within the LRQA scope of accreditation granted by ENAC.

You may make statements concerning your ENAC accredited approval, as long as such statements are supported by your approval.

Misuse of the mark

ENAC make the restriction that the mark can only be used on the LRQA certificate.

The mark can't be used on your stationery or reproduced in any other way.
